(d) In the area of mud housing technology, different R&D groups are working on for improving traditional methods (like Adobe, rammed earth wattle and daub) as well as for developing new techniques which include compacted and stabilised mud blocks, pneumatically rammed earth etc. Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS) have formulated specifications for soil based blocks.

Urban Development Project in Maharashtra

3223. SHRI G. PRATHAPA REDDY :
DR. SHRIKANT RAMCHANDRA JICHKAR :

Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state :

(a) the total amount of Central Grants for the various Urban Development Projects given to the Maharashtra State during the year 1992-93;

(b) whether Maharashtra Government has spent all the grants or whether any such money has lapsed; and

(c) whether there was any delay in the disbursement of grants ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT WITH ADDITIONAL CHARGE OF THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF WATER RESOURCES (SHRI P. K. THUNGON) : (a) and (b) Since Urban Development is a State subject, the Planning Commission requires that all urban development projects should form part of the State plan. However, one time special grant of Rs. 100 crores was sanctioned in 1987 by the Government of India to the Government of Maharashtra for tackling the problems of slums and housing in Bombay. Out of Rs. 100 crores Rs. 88 crores have been released to the State Government. The balance will be released based on its performance and compliance of conditions subject to which the special assistance was granted. In addition, on the recommendation of the Ninth Finance Commission, a one time grant-in-aid of Rs. 50 crores was sanctioned to Government of Maharashtra for slum clearance and environmental improvement of slums and provision of basic amenities in the city of Bombay with the condition that the State Government would also make a matching provision of the same amount for this purpose. Against this, the Ministry of Finance had released Rs. 48.33 crores as Central share with reference to the provision made by the State Government. Recently, an additional Central assistance of Rs. 20 crores has been allocated by the Planning Commission for tackling special problems of Bombay during 92-93 Annual Plan.

(c) No, Sir.
